
Curriculum vitae

Name: Prof. Dr. med. Daniel Baumhoer
 Date of birth: 16.01.1976 in Minden, Germany
 Nationality: German / Swiss
 Marital status: Married, two children
 Address: Glaserbergstrasse 10, 4056 Basel
 Tel.: +41-61-32-86892, Fax: +41-61-265-3513
 EMail: daniel.baumhoer@usb.ch

Education and employment history

10/1996 - 06/2003 Medical training at the Georg-August University of Göttingen, Germany
 07/2003 - 12/2009 Residency at the Department of Gastroenterology and Endocrinology (Prof. Dr. med. Dr. h.c. G. Ramadori), University Hospital Göttingen, Germany, the Cantonal Institute of Pathology (Prof. Dr. med. G. Cathomas), Cantonal Hospital Liestal, Switzerland and the Institute of Pathology (Prof. Dr. med. M. Tolnay), University Hospital Basel, Switzerland
 01/2010 - 12/2010 Research Fellowship at the „Clinical Cooperation Group Osteosarcoma“ (Prof. Dr. med. M. Nathrath), Helmholtz Zentrum Muenchen, German Research Center for Environmental Health, Neuherberg, Germany 01/2011 - 06/2014 Staff pathologist (Oberarzt) at the Institute of Pathology (Prof. Dr. med. M. Tolnay), University Hospital Basel, Switzerland since 07/2014 Staff pathologist (Leitender Arzt) and head of the Bone Tumor Reference Center at the Institute of Pathology (Prof. Dr. med. M. Tolnay), University Hospital Basel, Switzerland since 10/2015 Endowed professorship of the Gertrude von Meissner-Stiftung (Stiftungsprofessur für kindliche Knochen- und Weichteiltumoren)

Academic degrees

10/1999 - 07/2003 MD thesis „Expression of the CXC chemokine IP-10 in testicular germ cell tumors“. MD grade: magna cum laude, University of Göttingen, Germany 07/2003 – 12/2012 Habilitation thesis „Morphologic and molecular characterization of tumors and tumor-like lesions of bone“. Venia docendi, University of Basel
 11/2019 Titularprofessur, University of Basel

Prices

05/2016 Rudolf Virchow Price of the German Society of Pathology
 09/2019 President's Medal of the International Skeletal Society (ISS)
